We are delighted to present a concert at Oxford Methodist Church for Hospices of Hope which supports people with terminal or life-threatening illness in South East Europe.

We've chosen a programme of inspirational music designed to please all tastes. It features songs and anthems by some of Britain's greatest composers such as Henry Purcell, William Byrd and the first female Master of the Queen's Music, Judith Weir. Rarely heard gems from Europe by Fanny Mendelssohn (Felix Mendelssohn's sister) and Clara Schumann (Robert Schumann's wife) are also included along with cheeky French chansons and well-known English madrigals.

Frank McConnell's guitar solos include a 16th French dance, a Welsh folk melody and one of his own compositions. His varied selection delightfully complements our evening of magical music to which I warmly invite you, your family and friends.
